

TOURISTS HAVE SPOKEN,
CANCUN'S BEACHES ARE BACK AND BETTER THAN EVER

Cancun, Quintana Roo, January 12, 2010- Cancun tourists are in awe and the locals couldn't be happier, Cancun has finally gotten its beaches back. As the USD $71 million dollar ($957 million pesos), project continues, the results can not only be seen, but are already being enjoyed by all.

Actual tourist testimony please visit: www.cancun.travel

The project commenced on September 4th, 2009 delivering more than two thousand tons of pipeline material to destination and more than 1.3 billion gallons (6.1 million cubic meters) of sand to replenish all of Cancun's Hotel Zone seashore.
