

The 6th Annual Festival of Life and Death Traditions Comes to Xcaret

Xcaret Park, which for the past 20 years has enhanced the natural and cultural richness of Mexico, will be hosting the 6th annual Festival of Life and Death Traditions. The celebration, held from October 30th to November 2nd, will be a mosaic of color, music and tradition along with a remarkable program of activities for children, youth and adults about the traditions of the celebration of "The Innocents." The famous Mexican actress, Ofelia Medina, will present a show where she impersonates three of Mexico's most iconic women of the arts: the writer sister Juana Inés de la Cruz, poet and author Rosario Castellanos and painter Frida Kahlo.

<http://festivaldevidaymuerte.com/>

LA PETITE is Created, Art & Innovation Blossom in Cancun

LA PETITE is a newly created collective, formed by artists from different disciplines, to provide a space where artists can gather and work on their projects together with members of their community. The inaugural exhibition and party will be held on October 1st to publicize and celebrate some of Cancun's artistic talents in disciplines such as fashion, photography, industrial design, audiovisual arts and illustration. colectivolapetite@gmail.com

F.A. Grand Coral Beach Gem Spa has been certified as a Leading Spa

Leading Hotels of the World congratulates F.A. Grand Coral Beach Gem Spa for offering a world class spa that complies with the luxury standards of its consortium. In essence, this Leading Spa certification is a promise that clients will have a genuine, holistic experience at this luxury spa. Designation as a Leading Spa is a distinctive brand that will differentiate the Coral Beach Gem Spa, as it is the first Leading Spa in Cancun, giving Coral Beach a competitive advantage in the international market. <http://www.gemspacancun.com/>

Everyone Get Set for the ASUR's 3rd Levantemos Vuelo Race.

The Cancun Convention and Visitors Bureau (CVB) announces the third edition of the Levantemos Vuelo race, taking place on October 1st. About 3 thousand competitors, from Mexico and abroad, will race in either the 5k or 10k challenge- with the finish line on Cancun International Airport's secondary runway. For more information, visit www.emociondeportiva.com

The 2nd International Contemporary Dance Festival - Danxica Cancun – 2011

The Cancun Convention and Visitors Bureau (CVB) announced the finals of the 2nd edition of the Danxica Cancun 2011 - the International Contemporary Dance Festival – that will be held from the 9th to 13th of November. Dancers and choreographers from around the world will be competing to win. This great event organized by the Danxica Civil Association -with the support from the Cancun CVB, state and municipal authorities, and private initiative - is aimed to present new proposals and styles of contemporary dance from around the world to the Mexican Caribbean. This event hopes to encourage cultural tourism in Cancun and the Mexican Caribbean.